

Development (actualization) of standards and regulative documents in the area of environmental protection and industrial safety

- Development (actualization) of standards, regulative, organizational and methodic, managing documents and technical schedules in the area of environmental protection, industrial safety and related areas;
- Expertise of regulative documents projects in the area of environmental protection as members of Technical Committee 71 "Objects of environment. Industrial waste".
- Participation in work of intergovernmental and international standardization including work on coordination of national regulative documents with international standards.

[link: Adaptation of intergovernmental and international standards with method of account registration for the use on the territory of the republic of Kazakhstan]