

“ECO-Astana NR” LLP has a highly-qualified personnel, significant material-technical base, and bank of archived and other materials, which guarantee service provision on the highest level.

To improve the qualification of the employees, every year the Company allocates facilities to undertake courses, workshops in the environmental protection and industrial safety area.

Material-technical base of the company is equipped with computers and necessary organizational equipment, and also with newest software in the environmental protection design:

- ERA – air, ERA – waste, ERA – class – program complexes in the sphere of environmental protection design;
- Eco-info – ecological reference-book of the Republic of Kazakhstan;
- Reference system “Paragraph” allows the Company to undertake the operative and complex calculations corresponding to the current legislation;
- Program complex OKB “Burstroyproject” Ltd., “Well project developments” enables the Company to work out projects on the construction of oil and gas wells. Deposits might be located both on-shore and off-shore. Program complex supposes modern systematical provision and use of optimization algorithms to ensure minimum cost of well construction at a given level of quality. It provides reduced duration and cost of well construction project development, multiversion design, development of non-defects individual projects, establishing the level of well’s quality according to Client’s requirements.

Based on the contract with OKB “Burstroyproject” Ltd., “ECO-Astana NR” LLP received distributor’s right to sell program software “Well project developments” on the territory of the Republic of Kazakhstan.